HOSPITALITY AT LORD'S 2008

In 2008 Lord's will play host to around 65 days of cricket, including two npower Test Matches and two NatWest Series One-Day Internationals against Daniel Vettori's competitive New Zealand team and Graeame Smith's hugely talented South African side. Add to these the Friends Provident Trophy Final, two of the immensely popular Twenty20 matches, Middlesex's LV County Championship and NatWest Pro40 fixtures alongside the traditional Oxford v. Cambridge, Eton v. Harrow and MCC matches and you have a busy summer at the 'Home of Cricket'.

With such an exciting match profile for the season ahead, where better to watch any of these fixtures than in the heat of the English summer with an unrivalled view of Lord's from your own Private Hospitality Box?
