Michael Vaughan

"Lord's is a very special place for all cricketers to play. There's always a buzz about the place, whether you're playing a county game or a big international".

Sachin Tendulkar

"We got to see The Pavilion from the other side, and it was a memorable sight because we had seen the India team lifting the World Cup in 1983".

Ricky Ponting

"We have some great memories of playing at Lord's. It's always a thrill to play at the home of cricket".

Brian Lara

"It's been great playing here. It's the mecca of cricket ... if you tell me to put on my whites tomorrow and come and play a game at Lord's, I will".

Mahela Jayawardene

"Lord's to me is a theatre of dreams. When I walked through the Long Room and onto the field, it was my dream coming true".

LORD'S
THE HOME OF CRICKET

Guided Tour

LONG ROOM

The Pavilion houses the legendary Long Room, art gallery of cricket history, that leads to the Committee Room and players' dressing rooms with their famous honours boards and balconies.

The Museum is the treasure house of Lord's, home to the Ashes Urn and over 400 years of cricket history. Special exhibitions, special commissions and unique records make it the international cricket collection.

The Tennis Court hosts championship real tennis - the sport of kings. M.C.C. drew up the laws of lawn tennis in 1876.
