MCC Ladies v Trinidad & Tobago Ladies

40 overs played at the Queens Park Oval

Result: Trinidad & Tobago won by 82 runs

Despite a T&T opening partnership of 61 by Seetahar and Singh MCC put in a fantastic bowling and fielding performance to restrict T&T to 159 for 9 off 40 overs. Captain Bev Nicholson in the wickets again with 4-27 off 8, including the prize wicket of Shinelle Lord for 1. Judy Wilmot weighed in with 3-17 off 6 overs and Beth Wild bowled a tight spell conceding just 17 runs off her 8 overs.

Another steady start from Beth Wild and Steph Williams gave MCC a great platform but unfortunately wickets fell regularly and somehow MCC managed to lose 7 wickets for 17 runs. The twins Alisa and Anisa Mohammed in the wickets again. Plan B for playing the spinners for the rest of the tour .

Gaitri Seetahar was named man of the match for her 26 runs and 8 overs 4-19.
